73 Circle Drive South, Cranbourne

Experience security, independence and community.

Each tenant will have:

1  1  1

Experience the perfect blend of independence and support in this beautifully designed three-bedroom shared SDA home. This sunlit sanctuary provides a secure and comfortable living environment that prioritises both privacy and accessibility.

Designed with independent living in mind, the home also features a dedicated, self-contained space for on-site support staff, ensuring assistance is available whenever needed. This thoughtful layout strikes the ideal balance between personal space and support.

The custom-designed accessible kitchen is equipped with generous storage making everyday tasks simpler and more accessible. The spacious interior extends to a covered outdoor entertainment area, perfect for relaxing. Meanwhile, landscaped gardens and accessible pathways offer a beautiful and functional outdoor retreat.

Smart home automation, solar panels and advanced communication systems enhance convenience throughout the home. Mobility aids, such as handrails, are thoughtfully integrated to provide additional support wherever necessary.

To ease your transition, Guardian Living is offering one month rent free and is providing essential electrical appliances, including a TV, fridge, washer, and dryer, along with contributions toward move-in costs and furniture.
